ACTION RE: REPEAL AND RECREATE CHAPTER 475 OF THE VILLAGE OF ALLOUEZ MUNICIPAL CODE, ALSO REFERRED TO AS THE ZONING CODE AND MAP

Staff gave a brief overview of the changes to the zoning code and provided an amendment to the public hearing draft, correcting a reference error. Changes referenced:

- Ordinance structure
- Zoning districts
- Uses

July 27, 2020 (Plan Commission Meeting Virtual)

- Parking and transportation requirements
- Administration and procedures
- Non-conformities
- Sustainability
- Housing types
- Signs
- Design requirements

Discussion included:

- Parking requirements
- Public comments

DISCUSSION RE: BICYCLE AND PEDESTRIAN INITIATIVES RELATED TO ROAD PROJECTS

Discussion included:

- Comprehensive Bicycle and Pedestrian Plan (2017) encourages new facilities be put in at the time of a road reconstruction.
- Village should make a concerted effort to bring up new facilities during all road projects (i.e. resurfacing projects and reconstruction projects).

DISCUSSION RE: FOX RIVER TRAIL CONNECTIONS AND WAYFINDING

Discussion included:

- Opportunities to provide public access to the Fox River Trail should be a part of every development discussion on Riverside Drive
- The trail users have increased dramatically – as much as four times according to Brown County Parks Department counts – between March, April, and May of 2019 and the same time frame in 2020. This increase is largely attributed to COVID-19.
- Daily passes for the Fox River Trail are not required at this time because of COVID-19.

DISCUSSION RE: ANNUAL SITE TOUR

The committee decided to choose a date and locations at the August meeting.

REPORT/DISCUSSION RE: VILLAGE PROJECTS AND PROPERTIES UPDATE

Staff provided an update on the following projects:

- Olde River Condominiums
- Chapel Hill Apartments
- You Are My Sunshine Daycare
- Proposed development for 917 & 923 Derby Lane
- Wisconsin Medical Credit Union
- Comprehensive Plan Update
